

SON NOT SHIPWRECKED

BUT HIS WIFE AND FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. Latham Hall, the latter a son of Mrs. Louisa Robbins, who died yesterday at her home on Livingston avenue, with Mrs. Hall's mother, are expected here tomorrow from South America to attend the funeral of Mrs. Robbins which will be held tomorrow afternoon and will be private, Rev. E. B. Joyce officiating. A local paper stated yesterday that Mr. Hall had been shipwrecked on his way to his mother's bedside. This was incorrect. His wife and family and mother were shipwrecked on their way here to care for Mrs. Robbins and the son on hearing of the mishap joined them.
